107TH CONGRESS 1ST SESSION

H. R. 2984

To amend the Immigration and Nationality Act to ensure that aliens provided nonimmigrant status under section 101(a)(15)(H)(i)(b) of that Act are counted, for purposes of determining whether the numerical limitation on the provision of such status has been reached, in a manner that is accurate, fair, and takes into account only those aliens who actually commence employment as such a nonimmigrant.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

October 2, 2001

Mr. Andrews introduced the following bill; which was referred to the Committee on the Judiciary

A BILL

To amend the Immigration and Nationality Act to ensure that aliens provided nonimmigrant status under section 101(a)(15)(H)(i)(b) of that Act are counted, for purposes of determining whether the numerical limitation on the provision of such status has been reached, in a manner that is accurate, fair, and takes into account only those aliens who actually commence employment as such a nonimmigrant.

- 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
- 2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

1	SECTION 1. ENSURING THAT NUMERICAL LIMITATION
2	COMPUTATION ACCURATELY REFLECTS
3	NUMBER OF H-1B NONIMMIGRANTS EM-
4	PLOYED.
5	(a) In General.—Section 214(g) of the Immigra-
6	tion and Nationality Act (8 U.S.C. 1184(g)) is amended
7	by adding at the end the following:
8	"(8) Ensuring that numerical limitation
9	COMPUTATION ACCURATELY REFLECTS NUMBER OF
10	H-1B NONIMMIGRANTS EMPLOYED.—
11	"(A) IN GENERAL.—The Attorney General
12	shall take such steps as may be necessary to en-
13	sure that all numerical limitations applicable to
14	the issuance of visas, or the provision of non-
15	immigrant status, under section
16	101(a)(15)(H)(i)(b) are applied in a manner
17	that—
18	"(i) accurately reflects the actual
19	number of aliens who commence employ-
20	ment in the United States as such a non-
21	immigrant in each fiscal year; and
22	"(ii) does not count against any such
23	numerical limitation—
24	"(I) any visa issued to an alien
25	based on a petition filed by an em-
26	ployer that is not used by the alien as the basis for admission into the United States and commencement of employment with such employer within a reasonable period of time subsequent to its issuance any visa (including any visa in excess of one, in cases in which multiple visas are issued to a single alien based on petitions filed by multiple prospective employers and the alien accepts employers with only one of those employers);

"(II) change of any nonimmigrant classification or status authorized for an alien based on a petition filed by an employer that is not used by the alien to commence employment with such employer within a reasonable period of time subsequent to such authorization (including any authorization in excess of one, in cases in which multiple authorizations are provided to a single alien based on petitions filed by multiple prospective employers and the alien accepts employment with only one of those employers); and

"(III) any visa (or authorization to change nonimmigrant classification or status) in excess of one, in cases in which multiple visas (or authorizations) are issued to a single alien in order to permit employment with more than one employer in the United States during identical or concurrent periods of time.

"(B) CANCELLATION OF CONCURRENT VISAS UPON ENTRY INTO UNITED STATES.— Pursuant to subparagraph (A), the Attorney General shall take such steps as may be necessary to ensure that when an alien is admitted into the United States based on a visa according status as nonimmigrant described in section 101(a)(15)(H)(i)(b), any unused visa according such nonimmigrant status that has been issued to the alien is canceled for purposes of computing any numerical limitation applicable to the provision of nonimmigrant status under such section.

"(C) USE OF VISAS AND OTHER AUTHORIZATIONS WITHIN A REASONABLE PERIOD OF
TIME.—Pursuant to subparagraph (A), the Attorney General shall promulgate regulations establishing the precise durations of the periods of time described in clauses (I) and (II) of such subparagraph. The Attorney General shall by regulation provide for the cancellation of any visa or authorization described in such clauses that is not used by an alien to commence employment before the termination of the period of time determined by the Attorney General to be reasonable in the case of that visa or authorization. All such cancellations shall be taken into account in implementing subparagraph (A).

"(D) COORDINATION.—The heads of all other Federal agencies with regulatory authority with respect to aliens who may be provided nonimmigrant status under section 101(a)(15)(H)(i)(b) or employers who may petition under subsection (c) with respect to such aliens, including the Secretary of State and the Secretary of Labor, shall coordinate and cooperate with the Attorney General in order to en-

- 1 sure that this paragraph is implemented as effi-
- 2 ciently and effectively as possible.".
- 3 (b) Conforming Amendment.—Section 214(g)(7)
- 4 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (8 U.S.C.
- 5 1184(g)(7)) is amended by striking the second sentence.
